The best holiday gifts for cyclists

WELCOME TO THE GIVE GUIDE

Many believe Santa's workshop is at the North Pole. But cyclists know it's in a little town called Waterloo, perched in the quiet prairies of south-central Wisconsin.

Here, since 1976, a group of merry-making elves has been designing and building bikes and gear that turn every season into a holly jolly one.

This holiday gift guide is a collection of the workshop's best toys — a stocking stuffed with over 150 of the best gifts for every road, trail, and city cyclist on your nice list.

Happy holidays from Waterloo!

HOW TO GIVE THE RIGHT KIDS' BIKE

Some mornings are just a little more memorable. Use this guide to make this holiday magical for the littlest rider in your life.

It's all about height

When you're buying a kids' bike, no matter the age, look to our height recommendations. Bikes are sized and spec'd according to a child's height, so even if your little is in the 99th percentile, you'll be 100% satisfied.

All the parts are just right

We use size-specific parts and components to match the other parts of growing bodies. The bigger the feet, the bigger the pedals. This may seem like a no-brainer, but shop around and you'll find out otherwise.

Trade in, trade up

Select Trek retailers have kids' bike trade-in programs that offer discounts on the original purchase price of a new ride when your little one is ready to upgrade.

Shimano Di2 Electronic Shifting

THE GIFT OF PERFECT SHIFTS

In today's hyper-charged world of component innovation, there are few products that make a genuinely significant upgrade to your ride experience. Shimano Di2 electronic shifting? It is definitely one of those things.

Electronic shifting for all

Shimano's new 105 Di2 inherits the best tech from Ultegra and Dura-Ace Di2 and packs a futuristic 12-speed punch that's guaranteed to enliven your ride. Available now in Project One and on select Trek models.

Fast shifting for faster rides

Di2 groupsets have a powerful, integrated circuit that processes shifts at near-immediate speeds, which means you can be quicker on the draw for sprints and breakaways.

All the fun, and a sleeker cockpit

Fully wireless cockpits (and discreet wired connections on 105 Di2's derailleurs) make for performance in all conditions and a sleek look from stem to seatpost.

Long live the battery

Di2's internally-housed battery lives in the frame of your bike and only needs to be topped off with power every few weeks or months, depending on your terrain and shifting habits.
